

Dear Co-Op Families,

I hope you all have had a great start to your summer vacation! It was great seeing so many proud and smiling faces at this year's graduation! A big "THANK YOU" to all the staff for running the event so seamlessly and to Emily Ward for filling in as "Director for the night" as Suzanne had a conflict in her schedule! I was a bit saddened that this is my daughter's last year at the Co-Op, but she's ready for kindergarten thanks to all the hard work put in by the amazing teachers! Luckily, my son has three more years before he graduates, so I don't have to move on quite yet!

As always, the Board and Staff are very thankful to all of you who participate in all of our fundraising events. We were overcome with amazement when we saw our final total this year! I spoke with Suzanne and she said this is the most we've ever raised!!! So thank you to all those who bought a candle, donated an item to the classroom baskets, to those who used our Amazon link, and so on.

We're using this "Bonus Edition" newsletter to thank some very special donors we've had this year. First we'd like to thank The Kurt Kelly Memorial Foundation for your generous donation of the new basketball hoop that was recently installed on the playground. The Co-Op students have been loving this new and wonderful addition!! Secondly, we'd like to thank Joe Barrila of J&D Construction. Not only is Joe an amazing Co-Op father, he also donated many hours to help install gorgeous cabinets and counters in Suzanne's office to make it functional and provide much needed storage. Finally, we'd like to thank the Daigle Family. The Daigle Family provided the school with a generous donation towards our new cubbies! It was a very unexpected surprise for us this year and we can't thank you enough! We've also had a few anonymous donations that have helped make some vast improvements to the school. Please know, that although we don't know who you are, we do thank you and your donation has not gone unnoticed!

Thank you again to our special donors and all of our families! All of you make the Co-Op what it is and the place to be!!

Have a Happy and Safe Summer! See you in September!
